Fairyland Music

Do fairies have a music all their own?
Do they play and sing like you and me?
Aye! for years and years it has been known
That great musicians all the fairies be!

ADA MAY PIAGET

First theme. Practice ten times, emphasize melody note with left hand.

But listen to the little piece you play,
And you will hear the sweetest tune
Of fairy harps that sound both night and day,
And bells that call the weary home at noon.
And from the organ loft the solemn sound
Of chords swell out and fill all wonderland;
Your own ten fingers are the fairies, you found,
Who make fine music ring in fairyland.

Marie-Anne Walker

Second theme. Practice same as first theme.
